

Dasyilirion wheeleri

common name Desert spoon origin Northern and Central Mexico, Arizona, Texas.

nature Slow growing evergreen succulent.
Forms a trunk over many years.

pot size 400mm
500mm
100litre

growth Up to 2m high.

leaves Blue-green to light grey and covered with a waxy coating, narrow upright with teeth along the margins and with brushy leaf tips.

soil Most well drained soils, sandy soils.

requirements Full sun, extremely cold tolerant down to -18C, extremely drought tolerant. Trim leaves to expose trunk. Salt and wind tolerant. Low maintenance and requires no irrigation.

